Key Responsibilities

Support to Students

- To attend to the personal and social needs of students and any other special requirements depending on the nature of a student's special needs and, wherever possible, making these part of the learning experience.
- Under agreed school procedures and in line with statutory guidance on supporting students at school with medical conditions, assist with programmes of special care such as speech therapy, under the direction of the appropriate specialist and with the required training.
- Supervise and provide particular support for students with special needs, ensuring their safety and access to learning activities and to activities more widely in the school.
- Assist with the development and implementation of Interventions and other bespoke provisions.

- Promote inclusion and acceptance of students while encouraging constructive relationships within the classroom and with parents.
- Provide feedback to students in relation to progress and achievement under the guidance of the teacher.
- Assist with the planning of interventions.
- Create and maintain a purposeful, orderly and supportive environment.
- Use strategies, in liaison with the teacher, to support students to achieve learning goals.
- Monitor students' responses to learning activities and accurately record progress and achievement, and liaise with teachers in this respect.
- Promote good student behaviour, dealing promptly with incidents in line with established policy, and encourage students to take responsibility for their behaviour.
- Assist with routine tests where access arrangements are in place, and invigilate exams. Supervise pupils while they are engaged in small group learning activities.

Support for the Curriculum

- Undertake structured and agreed learning activities and interventions, adjusting activities according to student responses, including undertaking literacy and numeracy interventions, and recording achievement and progress and feeding back to the SENDCo.
- Prepare, maintain and use equipment and resources and assist students in their use, including supporting the use of ICT in learning activities and developing students' competence in its use.

Support for the School

- Be aware of and comply with policies and procedures relating to child protection, health, safety and security, confidentiality and data protection, reporting all concerns to an appropriate person.
- Be aware of and support difference and ensure all students have equal access to opportunities to learn and develop.
- Attend and participate in relevant meetings as required and participate in training and other learning activities and performance development as required.
- Undertake other similar activities that may fall within the grade and scope of the post as directed by the Head of School.

Other Opportunities

- Play an active role in school life and make a positive contribution to the ethos of the school.

- Actively participate in whole school CPD.
- Perform additional duties and tasks required for the effective operation of the school.

Variations

- As a member of the staff of the school the post holder must respect confidentiality and act at all times in the interests of the good name of the school and the health, well-being and good progress of its students. Staff must also display personal standards at work and in the local community that are fitting for a person associated with the education of young people.
- Undertake other duties; to commensurate to the post holder's abilities, position and grade, as requested by the line manager, of a similar nature to those listed above, even if not individually itemised.

- Support the needs of the school, taking into account individual strengths and areas for development, by accepting adjustments to the exact remit following annual job description review.
- Understand that the duties specified above are therefore neither exclusive nor exhaustive and may change over time.

This job description will be reviewed a least once per year and may be subject to amendment or modification at any time after consultation with the postholder.

It is not a comprehensive statement of procedures and tasks, but sets out the general expectations of the school in relation to the postholder's responsibilities and duties.
