

Fairy Tales

Week Beginning 20.4.20 (Week 1)

English	Read the Grimm's Fairy Tale of Snow White and the Seven Dwarves http://pinkmonkey.com/dl/library1/story158.pdf <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Can you create a storyboard of what happens?-Begin to write your own version of the Snow White fairy tale. Think about using paragraphs and adverbials to link each paragraph.-Can you check your use of punctuation and spelling? Are you using higher order punctuation?
Maths	-Line Graphs Can you complete the following activity? http://www.primaryresources.co.uk/maths/pdfs/linegraphs.pdf <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Create your own fairy tale inspired two step word problems Can you imagine how much popular fairy tale characters might weigh? Order them according to size using the greater than and less than symbols (< >) Can you imagine how much popular fairy tale characters might weigh?-Can you convert the grams to kilograms using decimals? 450g = 0.45kg Can you solve the word problems that you wrote earlier in the week?
Topic	Can you design a pop-up book of one of the known fairy tales? Make sure your book tells the full story and the pop ups add to the story
P.E.	Can you design a set of yoga poses to retell the Snow White story written by the Brothers Grimm?
Science	Design a fairy tale creature. How is it adapted to where it lives? List the adaptations and present them around your picture.
Extra Challenges	Maths Challenges: https://www.transum.org/Software/ Reading/Phonics/Maths Activities: https://home.oxfordowl.co.uk/