

THE TALE OF TALLULHA AND TOPSY

By Madison Sheldrake and Auntie Helen

Once upon a time there was a lonely princess called Tallulha and she lived in a Rainbow castle. Tallulha had a dog named Topsy and Topsy had a lovely gold crown and red collar.

one day Tallulha and Topsy went for a walk and came to a ginger bread bridge. As they reached the ginger bread bridge Topsy ran away. Tallulha called and called but she was Nothing to be seen.

ALL OF A SUDDEN Topsy emerged from the bushes and in her mouth she was carrying a note.

They searched high and low in cupboards and drawers. When all of a SU DDE N Topsy appeared carrying a large Polka dot key in her mouth. On the key was another note for Tallulah and this of

note

you found the key well done you.

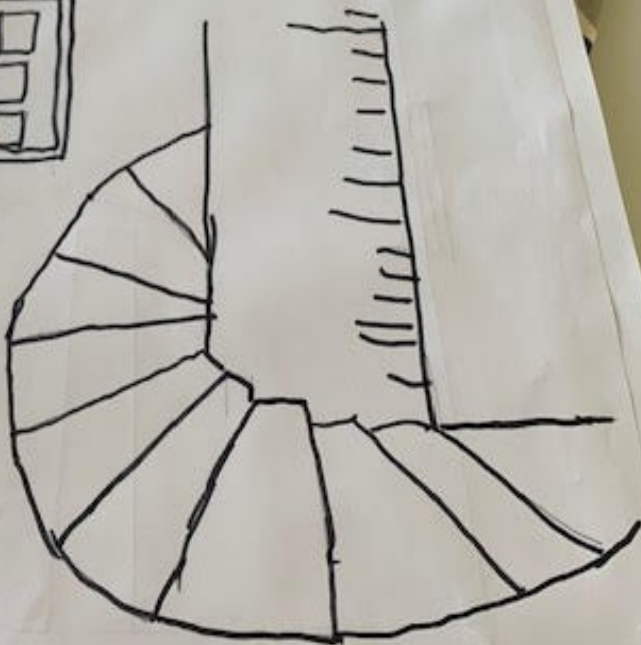

now find the door for your next clue.

who could be behind that door could it be me? your looking for?

P.S. go up the stairs to Level 4. for?

Tallitha and Tony climbed the spiral staircase up and up rolled and found they went 1234 and there they saw a... tortillon

Along the corridor were four doors.
First they tried the key in a red and white checkered door But T.... it did not open. "We'll have to try another door Topsy" said Tallulah. Then they tried the key in a blue and white stripey door But... it did not work. Topsy ran over to the polka dot door and Tallulah said "Well done Topsy it must be this door because it matches the key" Once again she tried the key in the lock But again it did not work.

"Now there is one door left Torby" said Tallutha. The last door was a big shiny golden door. Tallutha tried the key CLUNK. "Wait the key HAZZOR"
"It worked" said Tallutha to Torby.

As the door opened it
made a loud creak
and standing there
in front of Tallutha
was a handsome prince.

Read me 😊

when she finished reading the note the prince was down on 1 knee TALL when was over Joyed "yes"
She said.

TALLULHA TALL ULHA
I'VE BEEN WAITING FOR YOU MY WHOLE LIFE.
WOULD YOU DO MY THE HONOUR OF BEING MY WIFE... ?
